Trading Style

The landlords are seeking an operator who has experience running a busy community pub.

Trade at the Ivy comes from the local houses and regular customers who have been using the pub for many years. It is also very popular with families. There are regular events such as karaoke, live singers and fundraising events. There is a darts board and pool table, live sports could be introduced. Food could also be introduced, to increase sales. It was previously very busy on match days and welcomed home fans only.
